Diagnostics Plus Announces a New Company President

State College, PA - Diagnostics Plus announces James Fong as its new president. Mr. Fong assumed the role effective January 2, 2007. He previously served as Vice President of Sales and Marketing at Diagnostics Plus. Prior to joining the firm in 2005, he was Director of Marketing Research and Planning for Penn State Outreach.

Paul Weener, the company's original founder, will retain the title of CEO. Dr. Weener is in semi-retirement, but will continue to work with Diagnostics Plus on new business development opportunities and manage the board of directors for the company.

Prior to his service at Diagnostics Plus and with Penn State, Mr. Fong was president of a market research firm in New England, director of research for an advertising agency, and director of analysis for a leading international research firm. He holds a B.S., M.S. and M.B.A from the University of Vermont.

Diagnostics Plus is a full-service market research firm located in State College, Pennsylvania. The company is in its twentieth year of operation and specializes in business-to-business research and employs twenty research professionals. The company offers a wide range of research services including market research, employee/corporate assessments, new product development research, survey and focus group research and competitive intelligence. Additional information can be found at www.diagnosticsplus.com.
